

BAPTÊME

"Beyond the seas, since elected a new terroir, these wines keep ancient traditions that marked the course."

CRISTIAN GARCÍA

Winemaking & supply – Our Chief Winemaker

Cristian Garcia is a young and experienced Argentine winemaker, who in his early professional days had the influence of renowned talents like Mariano Di Paola, Pepe Galante and Paul Hobbs.

In his more than fifteen years of experience, working in wineries like Catena Zapata and Finca La Celia, he has developed outstanding wines targeted to a broad range of price segments and has been exposed to key international markets.

His obsession for quality and search of excellence, openness to learn and will to evolve, and entrepreneurial drive have enabled him to elaborate sophisticated wines based on his great knowledge of Argentine terroirs, understanding of consumer preferences around the world, and precise management of the art of winemaking. He is an expert in managing the value equation of wines, getting just the right quality and personality of wines to stand out in each segment. He has been an excellent ambassador of this industry abroad, catching the recognition of opinion leaders from different markets.

His low profile hasn't prevented him from developing great Argentine wines, that are currently being consumed in more than fifty countries, and have received outstanding punctuations and medals in the most prestigious wines contests from around the world. He has repeatedly been selected as panelist and jury of important local and international events.

